Official Art Unveiled

Glacier Centennial Program Announces Official Art

May 11, 2009—Glacier National Park—As part of the Glacier National Park Centennial celebration, the centennial committee hosted a juried art competition to continue the tradition of preserving our heritage for the future through art. On May 22, 2009, the official centennial art will make its grand debut at Spring for Glacier. Several artists will be in attendance to accompany the unveiling. ‘Saddle up for the Centennial’ is this year’s theme.

Spring for Glacier is an annual gala hosted by Glacier National Park’s four park partners: Glacier National Park Fund, Glacier Association, Glacier Institute, and Glacier National Park Associates.

Glacier National Park is quickly approaching its 100th anniversary. The park has empowered a team of volunteers to help plan and implement a community-based Centennial Program to take place throughout the latter half of 2009 and run through the celebration year of 2010.
